

Use the Meeting App and Get the Most out of the 2015 Spring Meeting & 11th Global Congress on Process Safety

Put away your pen and paper. Now everything you need to manage your time at the Meeting is available on your phone or mobile device with the AIChE Spring Meeting and Global Congress on Process Safety app.

View the technical program down to the paper level. Rate sessions. Search the exhibitors. Plan your schedule. Find a room. Even share your Meeting experience. The app's full functionality allows you to do all this and more. And because it's online it's always up-to-date.*

*Daily updates required to keep the app current. See back for additional information.

Download the app before sessions start on Monday morning.

The App is available on the Apple App store (for iOS devices) and Google Play store (for Android-powered devices). Blackberry users can use the web version of the app over a regular cellular connection.
